South Shore Brewery's Applefest Ale combines flavors and aromas of locally produced honey, delicious Erickson's apple cider, and specialty malts to produce one of the more unique and sought-after products of the season.

A seasonal beer with a very special significance. This beer honors those that call the Bayfield peninsula home: those diligent folks who have chose an agrigultural way of life and the busy bees who produce all that honey.

Our Applefest Ale, the original apple beer, showcases the pride of accomplishment for those Bayfield peninsula orchards and bee farmers. Locals and festival vistors celebrate Bayfield's Applefest and our Applefest Ale with fanfare and celebration.
